

Download Roots Stems Leaves Answer Key

pH Fluctuation. Both of these leaves in figure 3 and figure 4 are from the same plant. It could be over fertilization, but more likely it is due to the pH being off. How do large trees, such as redwoods, get water from their roots to the leaves? Scramblers: Bougainvillea and climbing or rambling roses are two of the many plants that fall into the scramblers category. These plants have long, flexible stems ... Why do plants need oxygen? Question Date: 2004-11-18: Answer 1: I'll bet you are wondering that because you already know that plants can make oxygen.